TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1894.

MESCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

MONTH

red at the Post-Office at New York as second

FORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-J PROP and Stath ave. at $24 st. BOOKLYN-000 Washington at TABBINGTON-701 14th et.

......

THE WORLD'S CIRCULATION FOR OCTOBER.

488,262. AVERAGE PER SUNDAY

AVERAGE PER WEEK DAY,

332,949. GAIN OVER LAST YEAR PER WEEK DAY,

45,150. GAIR OVER LAST YEAR PER

76,290.

--

It's all over but the explanations

......-

Election progresses quietly but in-

No country on earth is saved so often

There is little use in talking anything election to-day.

uld be right at hand. There is more than the usual

The bright dawn of rapid transit metiam at the polls to-day. It is worth while to be a citizen to May-unless one misses his vote.

No man left less doubt than Grover Cleveland as to which way he went to

It remains to be seen whether China wants peace more than Japan wants n't believe all you hear about elec tion bets. There's more wind than dust

Whenever a new Grand Jury to panelled now the police all whistle The man who has voted early and as often as the law allows has done his senly duty for the day. Real snow in this State to-day. Ballot box snow here, too. Many candidates have been denounced as the vilest speci-will be snowed under by 4 P. M. mens of human nature.

McKane's thoughts of Gravesend today must be long, long thoughts.

to carn their Thanksgiving turkeya. The lights on "The World's" dome Better New Yorkers' calling was loud ough. Now to learn that their election is sure. nd doesn't get the place.

That hour to darkest which to his fore the dawn: that one is longest just before the returns come in.

A snowstorm for election day up rth and a blizzard in the East. What Mow York asks is a cleansing tidal wave.

III England try to browbeat Japan's The Japanese have said that they would be afraid to give Johnny Bull bat-

The Lexow Committee has shown up to-day, to sustain the Committee's

The greedy Tiger in one balance, New York's self-respect in the other. That was the condition when the polls opened this morning.

The deathbed scene when the Czar ed away shows what a puny thing a mortal monarch is when the inevitable rs seem to be repeating the while the police are looking after the other repeaters. me Trust officials have been arin Philadelphia, but we can asure Attorney-General Olney's admirera that they are not Sugar Trust officials. Farmer Dunn's clear, cool weather for particularly clear for the Better

"After the smoke of battle has cleared away," perhaps Mr. Cleveland can be induced to write . letter to Mr. Olney in regard to the enforcement that should de the misinterpretation of the

The Rutherford man who lost his life a train paid a terrible price for the lars. So was the bridegroom, her hopeough, in urban and suburban cars, and this tragic lesson will soon be forgotten the people who fight their way into the trains

THE LADY OR THE TIGER !

Once upon a time a very smart man a story about a princess who loved a young man who was condemned to be cast to the wild beasts in the arena. The princess had a "pull" and succeeded in getting the sentence mitigated to the extent that the young man was given one chance for life. In one fellow. After frightening us with a cage was to be placed the tiger and in stormy flurry and making everybody another exactly similar cage a beautiful believe he had resolved to play the role mental irresponsibility. It tells a compil-young woman was to be confined. The of a partisan in this interesting election, cated story of the doings of some young be devoured by the tiger or marry the warm nor too cold, clean streets—that girl, as fate should direct his hand. But is, as clean as the dispensation of Anthe princess, still with her "pull," got drews will permit them to be-clear a tip as to which cage held the lady sunshine and a bracing, invigorating air, and which the tiger, and arranged to fit to put life and energy into the dullest signal from her seat in the royal box elector. to the young man in the arena which In a fight the natural and commenddoor he should open. The day arrived, and the moment when the young man must open the door. The princess, sitting in her box, knew that she was day. A bright model morning, calcuabout to consign her lover to a horrible lated to call out a full vote and to give fate or another woman. No one knows the victory to the best men without any which she did, for the story ended right "ifs" or drawbacks. If the reformers there, and nobody has ever written a do not win to-day, they may as well

Father Knickerbocker to-day, like the young man in the arena, is at the mercy this? of the uncertain mind of the princess of public sentiment. There is a beauteo maiden of reform in one cage and the Tammany tiger in the other. The key of the ballot will unlock either cage.

But Father Knickerbocker's story will to-night every one will be able to learn, by buying an "Evening World" Extra, whether it was the lady or the Knickerbocker rests in the arms of the white-robed maiden of Reform or requarters within the internal organism of the tiger.

the lady or down for the tiger.

VOTE AT ONCE.

It is to be supposed that most of "The Evening World's" readers will have put their votes into the ballot boxes before they read this. They do their duty well. and to vote early is one of their duties as taught by their favorite journal.

But, gentle reader, if you have not yet voted, remember the importance of the election; remember what is due from you as a good citizen; walk straight to your proper voting place and deposi your ballots in the box without delay. And when you do so, after doing what you conscientiously believe to be best for the public interests in the way candidates, do not fall to put into the

A ballot for Rapid Transit, and A ballot for Greater New York. These things interest you and your

They are more important than Govrnors and Mayors. They will outlast scores of Governors and Mayors, and their benefits will remain and multiply after scores of factional fights have been

NOW FOR NEW YORK.

Before our readers enjoy to-morrow's Evening World" the campaign will be over and the political complexion of the State and city will be settled until another election rolls round.

"Let us have peace." During the canvass there certainly has been a little too much war. Efforts have been made to paint New York as about the worst city in the civilized world. We have been described as prolific in all the vices known to human depravity. Citizens who have been bonared with high office

The revelations of the Lexow Commit es have certainly shown that we have many faults and failings needing correc-We cannot claim for New York This is the Better New Yorkers' day the reputation of being a strictly mora We are compelled to admit the presence of some corruption and other malpractices among those who serve us will flash the earliest story of the day's in a public capacity. We are, in fact bad enough in all conscience without making ourselves out worse than we are New York is a very beautiful and very desirable city. As a home it has many attractions. It is healthful, above other large cities. It has the purest and bes The race political differs from the water supply of which any city can horse race in that the runner who comes boast. It is surrounded by a fine country. Its rivers and bay are sources of health as well of beauty. It is an orderly city, in which life and property are safe. It is much more free from open, flaunting vice and immorality than any other large metropolis. Its police have been shown to be guilty of very terrible corruption among what is called the "lower strata," but this will be reformed whichever side may win at the polls to-day, and New York will be better for the purification.

If we get "Greater New York" and ment of pig lead from that port to Yokohama-'Rapid Transit" to-day, let us be contented, and then, while the work of reforming the evils so vigorously exposed many's hand. It is for the voters, by the Lexow Committee goes bravely let us all unite in justifying the New Yorker's natural and proper pride in his nagnificent city and in proving to the sior world that we have here what will eventually be the greatest, best and grandest metropolis on earth.

COURTING AT A WEDDING.

Annie Korlish, of Second avenue, is only twenty years of age. But she has result should be under the political dominion had a wedding day experience such as few women are likely to encounter. A young man named Benjamin Frieddays. They are getting in their work man, five years her senior, played his way into Annie's affections monica and Jew's-harp, with the aid of "Any officer who makes an arrest wants to be "Sweet Marie," "After the Bail," "On a sure that the place next door is not open."

of Annie's uncle. While the wedding was proceeding, however, the bridegroom's mother made | The men who have lauded Tammany achieve Farmer Dunn's clear, cool weather for her entrance on the scene and proceeded ments or excused Tammany abortcomings have election day got here on time. It ought at once to hostilities. She selzed her son here touched upon the lepartment of Charito prove particularly cool for Tammany by the hair and began dragging him by the hair and began dragging him constitute for them to do so for the institutions. from the room, despite the marriage bound, clung to her new husband. Annie's sick and poor neglected.—The Herald. uncle clung to his niece. The best man clung to the uncle. The rabbt clung to the best man. In this order the stalwart mother drew the forcible procession into the street, where policeman joined the line and led the way to the police station. A "courting" not before calculated on ollowed. The mother was fined five dol-coveted comfort. Seats are scarce, ful son. So was the best man. So, though in urban and suburban cars, and lamentable to tell, was the fair bride. All the fines were paid, except that money into his must be better than such a husband.

" A FAIR FIELD AND NO PAVOR." The clerk of the weather is a good man was to open the door of he has turned around and given us a go out of business. But can they lose on such a day as

SWEET HELLOS FOR HIS GIRL.

A boy at the Democratic State Committee's headquarters ran up a tele phone bill of about $18 for talking over the wire to his best girl, in Rochester. not break off so abruptly as that of the He lisped sweet nothings into the New young man and the princess. By 8 York end of the phone, and she wafted back warm words of endearment from the other end, and the copper sizzed and burned and sputtered along several huntiger that was released; whether Father dred miles while they coold and

The Committee got very angry when it found out that the boy had been doing his long-distance love-making at its expense. But the boy's argur Meantime, don't fail to do your share was right; it was easier than writing in influencing the result. Your vote may and cheaper in the end. A boy in love be the decisive one to turn the thumb of and especially an office boy, can use up the Princess of Public Sentiment up for an awful lot of his employer's time. congested voice, and wore some handstationery and stamps in communicating with his sweetheart. It takes reams of paper and quarts of red, blue and black ink to tell his love, besides which he isn't of so very much use around the office while his love-sickness has hold

Let him ring his girl up on the tele matter whether she is on the long dis- he says "Look pleasant." him, and he will be a better, a brighter knowing and being certain of these things.

A Newark candidate celebrated his en try into politics by a spree that brought on the jim jams, when he threw himseli out of a third-story window. He will die He began his statesmanship too sud children and your children's children. denly; he should have shown it in smaller drinks placed a little further part.

Workingmen who will go to the polls with a great deal of emptiness in their pockets must feel their eyeballs jingle when they read in the newspapers about the tens of thousands of dollars that have been offered in bets on the elec

President Gompers, of the America Federation of Labor, says he knows that bread can be sold for two and one-eighth cents per loaf and still leave a big profit for the baker. And Mr. Gomper

Following the example of Brother John Sheehan, Brother William F. Sheehan is to leave Buffalo for good. The reports fail to say whether it is for Buffalo's good-or for New York's.

BY NEW YORK EDITORS.

at Tacoma, it appears, in regard to the ship

he wiped out at once and forever, or whether i is to continue with the increased power of a new license. If Tammany wine, then the motte of the State should be changed from "Excelstor" to "Profundio," for instead of going up we shall be going lower down. The Advertiser.

It is a most effective anti-Tammany comment, for nobody who goes to the new (Metropolitan Art) Museum can come away without feeling more ashamed than before that a city of which the good citizenship has produced so inspiring the ignorant and vulgar.-The Times.

When a bartender was arraigned before hi (Police Justice Grady) a few days ago, he reon a har- buked the policeman for his real and said Bycicle Built for Two" and other popu- Pickpockets will be ept to take note of this lar airs. So last Sunday arrangements decision They will naturally argue that they were made for a wedding at the house are unjustly punished if other pickpockets are allowed to escape. - The Tribune.

possible for them to do so for the institutions stand as a reproach to civilization. The crimi-nals have ever been favored, the unfortunate

Watch the Pulitser Dome. If a great red ball you see,

Strong will our next Mayor be Above the dome a line of white Means that Grant has won the fight.
A line of red the tale will tell That Morton's friends worked hard and well, If all the dome to white stands ou

MISS DYNAMITE.

Marie Jansen is not a great artist, bu imposed on the bride. In vain she ap-pealed to the bridegroom, who handed she is worthy of a better play than over his own V, put the rest of his "Miss Dynamite," the dreadfully incon money into his pocket, said "ta-ta, gruous affair in which she was seen at dear!" to Annie, and went off with his the Hijou Theatre last night. She could belligerent mamma.

Annie was locked up, but anything moved through the scenes as though also stand a better company, people who they understand them. With one or two exceptions "Miss Dynamite" was interpreted by automata.

"Miss Dynamite" is an "original" farce by Glen MacDonough, who has done one or two crelitable things, and who must have evolved this play in a moment of mental irresponsibility. It tells a compil-Americans in Paris, at a time when thought best and model day for a full vote; neither too dynamite outrages are the fashion, and every parcel is looked upon as a possible infernal machine. Miss Dynamite herself is an actress who does not appear. The uncle of two pretty nieces has a flirtation with her, and one of the nieces mpersonates her. Each maiden has a sweetheart. There are four doors and a so," exclaims each new arrival, but he never finds the object of his quest. Each character seems to be wasting his valuable time doing nothing. It is most irritating.

A cuckoo clock and a chafing dish made the hits of the piece. The clock was concealed in the breast of a man's coat, and made itself heard when he was pleading for a fair lady's love. The chafing dish was used to cook a gateau, that exploded, presumably, with an excess of baking-powder. The audience laughed at these episodes. They were the only cases in a dreary Sahara. Yet Mr. MacDonough has written us some bright lines. He has evidently admired Oscar Wilde, and has tried to imitate him. Some of the epigrams were stale, but a few of the speeches were clever "I live in Kentucky," says an American girl in Paris, "and whenever anybody shoots a relative I go home to the funeral." Then again, "Woman has but two ages-sixteen and over."

The epigrams, however, will not save "Miss Dynamite." The farce is congenitally weak. Miss Jansen sang a song in a some scarlet tights. She looked remarkably well. Charles B. Welles played the part of an artist, in a conventional cordured jacket, but he seemed uncomfortable, and did not do the part justice. Frederic Bond was fairly effective. William Norris wore a perpetual grin that reminded me of the ghastly smile phone and pour his soul out to her, no that a photographer lures one into when him Peters gave a clever little sketch of an the right of way at the instrument, and attache of the French police service, t will do him good. He will know that and Soldene Powell was amusing as his girl is there and that she still loves money-hunting nobleman. The real hit of the piece-as I heard a lady in the and a more desirable office boy for audience remark-was made by Miss Dynamite herself. Miss Dynamite did ALAN DALE. not appear.

EDITORIAL SCISSORINGS.

Mr. Denew's Courtesy. Dr. Depew is always a courteous opponent. Unlike many in his party, he knows how to ADSWOT a political question civilly, -Buffal Versatility in the Pulpit. well-known Delaware County minister is once a preacher, a hymn writer, a composer music, a hard student of history and does the mily marketing.-Chester News.

So Transitory Is Fame. Here comes old "Constant Reader" again, wh

if the Republican candidate for the Vice-Presi-dency in 1892 was "Mr. T. B. Reed, of Maine Mr. -- what's his name .-- Kansas City Star.

A Point Well Taken.

What is the use of legislating against bill-p nd patent medicine advertising on the Palisadea t there are to be no Palisadea? Even a Yankecouldn't paint on a cliff unless the there.—Newark Advertiser.

Georgia's Fleet-Footed Justice. We congratulate our Criminal Court. Just eventy days from the time he shot down Capt. guilty of murder .- Atlanta Journal.

Things That Mars Shouldn't See. liggins further declares that with their nowerful telescopes, he has no doubt that the Martians can see the lights of New York and Philadelphia. Let us hope that our long-loss prothers cannot see, at least, the Lexow Com mittee witnesses and the Assess bent into a circle, used to cost as much as 11 000. The edible birds' nests, of which Chinese spi es are so fond, cost from $1 to $5 a pound, as ording to quality. in France the duty is $310 a ton. It is lowest in est Britain, where it is $70 a ton.

WORLDLINGS.

There are $03 post-offices in the city of London Five acres of land at Charing Cross, now among at expensive property in London, were leased for graxing purposes by the ancestors of the Marquis of Salisbury 250 years ago for ter shillings an acre.

Most of the land in the Republic of Mexico is held in almost feudal tenure by about 7,000 Since the beginning of history there have been

The celebrated Egyptian Sphinz is 173 feet and 53 feet bigh. The average depth of the oceans is about three miles. If the water were to evaporate a layer of sait 200 feet thick would be left.

A suit of chain armor such as the knights in Charlemagne's time cost about $1,000. "IN MIZZOURA."

(From the Kansas City Star.) In Missouri there are 6,275 people blind in Mississippi County with little effort can raise good figs. Corder has 500 inhabitants and will soon ha on baseball games. Tramps in Joptin throw away cold lunch. They insist on hot coffee.

News. A brother of the Mayor of New York City is hauling the chips to Monroe City.

Joplin has divested itself of a number of cit sens professionally known as vags and tin horns Capt. H. E. Asbury is the first person in L.

The children at Monroe City bet their nickels syette County to "prove up" as a Sun of the levolution. A man was fined 25 in Cameron not so mufor getting drunk as for having "a face that made one's fesh creep." in a burst of pride the Joplin News may " 'French John' Giptord, the well-known shoe maker, has handled more old shoes, drank mor poor whiskey, fought with his wife oftener an been inside the city and county jalls more time than any other one man in the county.

"I don't want people to think I'm "Then don't marry him."

The Evening World's" Gallery of Living Pictures.

DON'TS. Thoughtfully to Those Who Reed It.

MRS. ELIZABETH B. GRANNIS. This is the picture of a woman wh cost her vote by proxy, and who is also watcher at the polls.

ONLY ONE CHAIR FOR BOTH.

And There is Talk of Kissing Under Those Circumstances, Too. To the Editor

that the longer she sits on the young - man lap the longer she will have his company, for he Even so she kins'd his brow, his cheek, h chia.

And where she ends she doth anew begin," There is a kind of reserve, agreeable to mor young men, and that is that when they have had all the kines they can well carry at a given time the young lady should have "more re-

They Should Be Engaged.

To the Editor In reply to the question whether it is prop for a reputable young lady to kiss a young me and to sit on his lap, though not being engaged to him, I would say that common sense shoul tell the young lady that it is not proper; and believe if a young man intends to marry a girl he will think more of her if she does not allow him such privilege until they are engaged. WILLIAM L'HOMMEDEU.

Nothing Wrong in It.

To the Editor I do not see any impropriety in a young lady kinsing a young man to whom she is not engaged. I do not mean by that that she should kins every young man (or sit on his lap) who comes to see her; but I mean that if a young man goes with a girl steady, even though not engaged to her, that it is proper for her to kiss him. I myself have kept steady company for ten months, and do not object to such, sithough I am not engaged. OUR HIGHLAND LADDIE.

Mighland, N. Y.

To the Editor: In answer to "One Who Keeps Company," must say that I think it proper to sit on a young man's lap. It certainly is all right if the girl is willing, and I think so, whether or no. Is it not a fellow's right to steal a kiss, and, therefore, proper? I keep company myself, and think it proper. Moreover, "atolen fruits are the sweetest." F. S. V. T., Yonkers, N. Y.

Very Unladylike, Indeed.

To the Editor: a young man's knee is that she acts very unladylike, whether engaged or not And about kissing a young man before engagement, that it more respect and esteem for a young girl if she were not quite so forward. H. VON B.

It Is Better Not to Do It. o the Editor:

correct in her view of allowing the young man to kiss her and sitting on a young man's lay While many a young man likes to have a young lady sit on his lap, still be respects her far more if she will not do so. Indiscriminate kiss-ing is also something to be avoided. The "parting" kiss perhaps is allowable if the "parting" is not too frequent, or a kiss not always ex-pected. Any young man who is true will think nore of the girl who positively refuses to sit in seventy days from the time he shot down Capt.

King on the street, Alexander Carr was found I speak as one of the "fellows." but would like to know what the girls think of the question.
"BROWNIE," Brooklyn, N. T.

NEW YORKERS ARE NOT CURIOUS

This is a picture of a pretty girl pass ing along the street. One of Last Night's Dreams. o the Editor

Last night as I lay sleeping I had a curiou and after think it ever, funny to me it die ented many incidents of the mighty, com of the battle to be lost and won upon election Payored Levi P.'s election, for he was one More-

But its doubtful if he'll get there, the' some folks Still, he'll have to do hard climbing to get ove that big Hill. But something odd is going to bappen, a ton (Morton) curious and strange.

Por I placed my hand in my pocket, and there foit some change.
it might be in our Government, or it might be in the weather. liut a change in times would do us good-just no

We want a man to govern us-a man that's fall vote for a mare (Mayor).

Sensitive. (From the Washington Star.)
"I've been insulted," exclaimed Tun-kins, indignantly, What's the matter?" "McFuzzle told a friend that I had gotten so I ready believed some of the stories I tell. It's an outrageous affron. Why, it's equivalent to calling me a confounded blot."

Valuable Advice Given Torsely but Don't be at o'ds with your ered

Don't drink too many cochtails in the more and deep V-shape front, with a ruching of p take things easy.

For Etiquette's Sake.

Don't promenade while others are dencine Don't, when speaking to a friend in the stre-stand in the middle of the sidewalk, but step one side.

Don't ask questions about the of others. Don't whisper to your friend white others at Pon't goestp. W. LLOTD. For Young Married Men.

Don't play pool or policy. Don't remain out all night. Don't tell her you would rather live with

Don't first or even speak to your old stri satin in self color. Rich corsage of ivy green and gold brocade, plain to neck, with band collar. Full sleeves, shirred by cries.

Don't find fault with the blecults or the most above elbow, forming two puffs and fitting sleeves to hand. Toque of lace,

Don't oh, don't chew tutti frutti. A YOUNG MARRIED MAN. For Riders on the "L." to the Editor:

Don't continually try to steal a Don't read other people's nowm eyes upon her as she wore it. Love of admiration is inborn, and is, so far as Don't give up your seat to a pretty girl, alwe know, an attribute of all animate nature. This being the case, the man or woman who is destitute of the feel-Don't open the car windows to give others ing is not to be trusted. There is some-Don't curse the conductor if you sleep and need For Cyclers.

To the Editor goose gong. Don't ring for old ladies with bankets; get off nd wait till they pass.

Don't slow up for cable cars, the like; run into them. Don't forget to "keep off the glass."

cold in appearance, but properly lighted up by its surroundings it scarcely could Don't coust up hill.

Don't carry whistles, bells, horns, &c., where be improved for the purpose. Invalids Exempt from Wrinkles. u cannot ge' at them unless you get off. Don't ride a rheumatic tire. It will often be noticed that in a fam-Don't forget to carry a good supply of pafly of women one who has been an intience for those who shout after you: "You wheel is going round." "A monkey on a wheel, valid for years will be the one who will preserve her youthful looks the longest.

M. F. PENA. 10 Chambers street.

For Some Bookkeepers. To the Editor:
Don't come to business week after week for years always cross and ready to scold, as if you were brining home troubles with you.

Don't take twenty minutes to your lunch and then, after getting those under you at work again, go back and take a half to three-quarters of an hour longer. Don't nibble at your lunch before noon and dur

Don't come back into the shipping departme employers for doing the same.

ussing and scolding because some one i Don't think that because you have been wit he firm a long time that you are one of them. Don't think because the boys take your abu

Don't fail to use a few kind words new an

A VICTIM. wonderfully. For Ladies Buying Shoes. the Editor:

Don't get into a shoe store and ask for a size i when you know that a SEE width is your fit. Don't ask the clerk how the shoe fits when you have got your own foot in it.

tores and could not be suited. Don't try and wear out the shoe while the same shoe for 50 cents less. Don't my that the man in the next block boop

Don't ask the clerk to show you the same she

BROTHER JOHNSON, Jersey City, M. J. CAMPAIGN SONG FOR TO-DAY. Down with the Tammany Tires.

Air-"Marching Through Georgia." And rout the tiger from his lair and fight an Kill the big man-eater and his whole nefa-Down with the Tammany tiger

Hurrah! hurrah! we'll sing the good old song. Hurrah! hurrah! and vote for Goff and Strong; Sing the good old chorus and right the sity Down with the Tammany tiger! out him out and roast him out with righteous and squeal! Then the final home thrust with a clean Strong ballot deal. Down with the Tammany tigeri ho .- Hurrah! burrah! we'll sing the good ele these many years he's fattened by bribery and By sucking out the life blood of the city's health, attened on the people and the people's wealth, Down with the Tammany tiger! bo.-Hurrah! hurrah! we'll sing the good old song. &c. MANSFIELD TOWNSEND.

Chorus:

Iwo Mountains for McKinley to Climb

The shipment of tron ore from Lake Superior mines will be 20 per cent. more this year than last. McKinley says the Wilson bill "binsted" Superior region. Better put in another .

with gold and emerald ornaments.

Why Women Dress.

thing lacking to complete the creature.

A Hint About Wall Paper.

one's possessions. Otherhwise it is rather Theatre Costume. This is a theatre costume of sucalyp tus green serge, with draped skirt and sleeveless corsage, shirred over the shoulder and bordered around the arm the serenity of the invalid. A Woman's Library. The oddest library any woman possesses is made up of newspaper clippings, perfectly catalogued and arranged by a professional librarian. There are thousands upon thousands of these slips taken from newspapers the world over, and the owner of this bureau of ready reference is a journalist, who has been making her collections for her own convenience. Given almost any topic to write on, she is apt to find a mass of important facts and the key to many others among the envelopes which her unbound library is gathered and docketed. The whole of it only occupies a corner cupboard in her writing room, and as an adjunct to newspaper work she advocates these clipping col-lections for wemen, who can, with the aid of scissors, glue pot and a little dis-cretion, make for themselves similar in-desirable to shirk one's share or work one's good looks. But one might easily think how far those worries and that work may be avoidable and so emulate or worry for the sake of prese aluable registers for common reference The Old-Time Warming Pan.

Warming pans are as much a thing of the past as spinning wheels, and are seen in modern homes, like the latter, only as quaint ornaments. Yet it is not so many years ago that they held an important place in the domestic economy It is often said that women dress for and were the source of otherwise un-It is often said that women dress for other women and not for men, but don't you believe it. Not one woman in one hundred would care a belt ribbon whether she had a silk or calico gown, or whether it was made with leg-o'-mutton or skin-tight sleeves, if there was no man, assuredly or prospectively, in the landscape to look with admiring was sprinkled over the coals in the was mind that the super was mind the super was prinkled over the coals in the was mind the super super was mind the super warming pan in their honor. Pepys presented Capt. Beckford "with a noble silver warming pan" in 1669.

Possibilities of Cretonne.

The possibilities of cretonne are quite as boundless as the ocean, and the other day, when the writer was shown into a room all blushing with pink cret If one has many paintings or water colors, or much bright-colored bricabrac, a wall paper of a delicate shade of Flora's bower. And so she had, but gray in a solid color will be found to be not the one where "roses and geraniums charming background for showing off grew in loving intimacy," but where ne's possessions. Otherhwise it is rather this practical Flora had used oretonne for wall covering, bed spread, table cover, window curtains, bureau set and even for frilly frames for pictures, which represented dainty Watteau mer

For Wooden Floors.

Glue and sawdust is the accepted minture for filling up nail holes and chinks Invalids almost always have a certain in floors that are to be painted. When exemption from wrinkles and time-worn this cannot be had a good substitute can aces. This must be due to the sheltered. be made by boiling some bits of paper till it makes a pulpy mass, and then quiet lives they lead, the freedom from excitement and the partial inmunity mixing it with a little glue and wood stain of the proper color. This should be used several days before the painting from cares that touch them last of all, being borne by the rest of their friends as far as may be. There must be a little is done, that the glue may have time to noral in the statement, too. It is not "set."

"Farmer:" As a tax sufficient to support the Dovernment, levied on land values, irrespective of improvements, would bear heavily on holders of vacant land, considerable of it would be forced into the market, with the result that economic rent would fall, yours included. Besides this, all the taxes you now pay on the products of your industry would be included in this diminished rent, leaving you a gainer by the difference in the rent and the taxes you now pay. Under the Single Tax, if you owned land and rented if out, you would practically be nothing but a tax collector for the Government; but if you worked gainer by saying considerable in rent and taxes to say nothing of being a member of a prosperous

ANTONIO BASTIDA

land, either as owner or tenant, you

LETTERS.

(This column is open to everybody who has complaint to make, a pricounce to ventilate, informa-tion to proc. a subject of peneral interest to discuss put the idea rate less than 100 words. Long letters

Street Opera in Brooklyn

the Editori I am a Brooklynite and thoroughly sympathise with "Sufferer." I have to work all night for ring the day. Street venders are a nutsance and Joralemon street, where I live, seems to be their Eldorado. I have seen as many as seven or eight right under my window, one yelling 'cabbage," another yelling "grapes." his health. The time I spend at home with my like committing either murder or suicids.

ANOTHER SUFFERER. Plenty of Room for All. Those persons who say that immigration ought railroad companies and private ass that in a short time could turn to be villages, towns and cities. I think the people of the United States should encourage imigration or didance so as to prohibit the corporation of th lave not been touched by experienced tillers, and persons of a nervous temperament seem to have to this country, and the best plan would be to strest venders. tart companies and associations, offering them all the inducements possible that would make them turn to "land cultivating and make themselves a home," and not stopping in the over-crowded centres, where hardly all the skilled labor can be employed. LEOPOLD PORRINO.

To the Editor:

To the Editor:

As I wandered in the valley,

Blushing roses I did see.

And the wind was wafting gently.

But one hung its head to wither,

It appeared to gently sigh,

It reminded me of life's career,

When we must pass away,

Are standing by our side,

Our children blushing roses they-

And we the withered ones, must pay,

What Single Tax Aims At.

tan Single Tax Club, $1 East Twenty-seventh street, for a copy of chapter in of Social Statis-tics, therein he will find that Herbert Spence fying private ownership of land. He demonstrates that land. like the other natural elements.

LEON CAUMONT.

Their perfume from them to me.

And to the flushed ones, in a whisper

When we are old and gray, And leave behind us, those most dear,

Mr. Bogy Explains Single Tax. o the Editor:

In your issue of Oct. 21 "Farmer" states that he leases "600 acres for $2 an acre" and nets between "$1,500 and $1,800 a year." He wants ome one to explain how the single tax would berefit him. Not knowing what capital " employs I do not know whether his seemingly large returns are fair or not. Assuming that they are, and even that he would have to pay $2 an acre for exclusive possession under the ingle tax, he would still gain vastly. He could not be turned off the land at another's will; his tax could not be increased for additional improve-ments; the tax would be removed from every-thing he ests, wears or uses, and the fil an acre-pated in land would benefit the whole community

To Make Sunday Only Partially Dry. To the Editor:

To the Editor:

Nothing.

What is a $199 bill of the Confederate States of America, of Elehmond, Dec. 4, 1862, worth! Elehmand, Dec. 4, 1802 "Will pay on demand."

tween the hours of 11 A. M. and 1 P. M., and from 6 P. M. to 11 P. M? In England they are run in this way and the system not only works well, but gives a man a chance to have a modest that land, like the other natural elementa, air and water, being necessary for our existence, to sembly of young men and women at the Tee-Teacknowledge ownership in it would carry as a Tum Club, or see Best Twenty third street. This corellary, ownership in the people who must live corellary, ownership in the people who must live on it. If, therefore, your private title to land is based upon injustice, and "the land belongs to the people," as is declared by the Bishop of Masth, the value which comes from the special privilege of excluding others, having equal rights to its use, should accrue in rent to the comminity, whose presence and wants make value. The Single Tax formulated by Nerve-Rasping Venders have got your own foot in it.

Don't, when you have to take a larger sheat and one lounder than the other. One fellow with and one lounder than the other. The ear-splitting shouting of the street venders ears, and their shouting of "Ten cents a whole a whole, a whole lot!" can be heard a distance and happy community.

wife, instead of being a pleasure is a torture; of three blocks. Generally two or three peddlers with street eviders, organ grinders, agents and and some boys accompany each wagon, beggars, life is not worth living, and I often feel they all join in the chorus the noise ints and and some boys accompany each wagon, and when sickening. You would imagine that they were suffering from cramps, colic or cholera, and that they were shouting from pain. The streets that they were shouting from pain. The streets that are mostly frequented by the gang are Bast Eighty-fourth and Eighty-fifth streets, between Avenue A and East Eghty-fifth streets, between evening. First avenue, page 12. to be stopped lose sight of the large amount of "public lands" that there is in the United States. According to the annual report of the General land Office, ending June 39, 1894, there is in the Land Office, ending June 30, 1871,013,595 acres of please. East End avenue is one of the most pub ic lands, without counting the amount given beautiful places in this city, but the vanders make ciations that a hades of it. Weak women, or children, or ordinances so as to prohibit the loud shouting of corporation

(including himself) instead of one title landlord. LOUIS V. BOGY.

Why cannot our saloons be open on Sundays be-ink openly and enjoyably, which is much bette than having to violate laws. &c. HERMAN SCHENCK. Terpsichore at the Tee-To-Tum. In answer to Mr. Marvin, I desire to state that theorge is a scientific method of appropriating this value without interfering with that security What is a soft of possession which is necessary to the unloter of America, of ted production and enjoyment of weelth. To